Events during July

Friday, 9th July Classical Guitarist was due to play – unfortunately this needed to be postponed until 28th August. We are looking forward to this and are hoping for a great recital.

Saturday, 10th July The film club presented another classic film which replaced the advertised “Our Man in Havana” – due to technical problems! Don’t miss the next film – A Hitchcock special – “The Lady Vanishes”. This will be shown on Saturday, 21st August.

Tuesday 13th July – 9:50 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. Mobile Library visit to Highfield.

Tuesday, 13th July Trip to Woodborough Garden Centre. This outing was very enjoyable – the weather didn’t dampen our enthusiasm. We had a nice trip out with coffee and a good chat. We will look forward to the next one – 17th August – come and enjoy.

Friday, 16th July – 11:00 a.m. Holy Communion.

Friday, 16th July Summer Flower Arrangement Demonstration. Another visit from our lovely florists. As always we were shown some unusual and colourful arrangements and as ever they were raffled afterwards. All who came had such a great time.

Saturday, 17th July Max the Retriever puppy will come to Highfield and as anticipated was as cute as expected. He came along and visited as many of us as possible but did become quite tired. Max will be coming again so that we can see his progress and how he grows. Max seemed to really enjoy meeting everyone. He is indeed a beautiful puppy and all who saw him were rather taken with him. Look out for him next time.

Saturday, 24th July As promised – the talk which was to take place on 5th June took place and our explorer talked about his experiences during his trip to Poland. We so enjoyed the whole afternoon and was so interesting. We were taken on a lovely trip and were shown the most wonderful slides. Everyone who came along really enjoyed this afternoon. Our explorer will be coming along again in November to talk about his involvement with The Mercy Ships.

Saturday, 31st July Our wonderful Pianist came to delight us again. As ever he played us some wonderful pieces and these were enjoyed very much. He told us some wonderful stories about famous people he has met – including Princess Diana and the ex-President, Bill Clinton. Some very interesting anecdotes were heard on this lovely sunny afternoon. We are very lucky to have such a talented pianist come along to play for us.
